

Viewshed is derived from 21,050 points placed every 10m along the town highway network. Each pixel represents the number of points that can be seen from that location on the DEM. The existing town ridgeline zoning is shown for comparison.

